A photograph of two men at a conference. The man on the left is wearing a white t-shirt with a palm tree pattern and a lanyard. He is holding a badge that says 'JS' and 'David Thomas Gunkle'. The man on the right is wearing a dark shirt. They are both smiling. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with other people and buildings.

The background of the slide features a photograph of a large, ornate hall, likely the Hungarian Parliament Building, with a red color overlay. The image is partially obscured by dark gray geometric shapes, including triangles and polygons, which are layered over the photo to create a modern, abstract design.
